

Men In Nursing Workshop

DATE: Saturday, June 10, 2017
TIME: 8:30am - 2:30pm
LOCATION: Mission College
Gillmor Center, Room GC-107

The Health Workforce Initiative of the California Community Colleges' Economic and Workforce Development Program would like to announce a free Men in Nursing workshop. This one day workshop will feature Marcus Engel, MS, CSP, CPXP as the key note speaker. Marcus holds a B.S. in sociology from Missouri State University and a master's in Narrative Medicine from Columbia University in the City of New York. He has authored 4 books which are being used by nursing schools and allied health care programs to teach strategies for excellent patient care. The workshop will provide working professional nurses and students with an opportunity to discuss Caring in Nursing. Upon completion of this workshop, the nurse will be able to:

- Identify 2 concepts of caring as it relates to nursing practice
- Discuss caring in relation to overcoming adversity and changing self-limiting behaviors into victories.
- Identify how to make the caring concepts into a transferrable skill as it relates to Men in Nursing.

Lunch will be provided

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 12073 for 4.5 contact hours.
